

“Education is not a magic but the result is ultimately a magic”

From Principal's Desk

A new horizon awaits you in every turns of life as a responsible, energetic, dynamic and of course a perfect self. Every detail in you, the so called “inert potential” has to be empowered through different mediums of guidance & counseling rather than only teaching. Every person is born with a special talent of their own and also possesses a unique character, hidden depth inside, by which, continuous and comprehensive practical involvement can overcome to some extent.

Let us try to excel. Let us also think that every failure is the pillar to success. Things that is done regularly always excel things that is done once. Every person needs freedom in education under a careful bird's view of a guide .

Now, we are setting up a different track with practicable plans of study completely different from normal learning under a strict participatory approach.
